In scientific writing, the author makes the site (website) by using the program Macromedia Flash MX applications, in order to serve interactive web-animation if there is an animation or design a more vibrant appearance. In discussing this issue be discussed is the way it started to determine the structure of navigation, making navigation maps, create, design interface, the formation of elements, combining elements, Action Script programming, testing up to compile it, so it can run. BAMUIS BNI Foundation in 1946 specifically to develop work programs for employees or retirees of Bank BNI 1946, the website was made interactive to facilitate the employee or retiree to get the latest news and information and also the media for site owners to deliver the news.

Bibliography: (2001-2004)