Abstract:
Problems letters - correspondence is one thing that could be considered quite important because the letter is a necessary information for individuals and companies. Because the handling of letters - correspondence must be good and tidy order if needed can be found quickly.